Summary of cover and other significant matters

By way of summary, the principal covers available are:

- cover for loss of or damage to your insured Building caused by one of the Defined Events occurring during the Period of Insurance (Section 1 – Building and Contents); and
- cover for loss of or damage to your insured Contents caused by one of the Defined Events occurring during the Period of Insurance (Section 1 – Building and Contents); and
- cover for Accidental loss of or damage to your insured Valuable Items occurring during the Period of Insurance (Section 2 – Valuable Items); and
- cover for legal liability you and certain other persons incur for Accidental death or bodily injury to certain other persons or Accidental damage to certain other person's property. This cover is only available if you have taken Building and/or Contents cover (Section 1 - Your Liability Cover).

Refer to each Cover Section for details of the basis on which we settle any claim.

You need to make sure that you are happy with the extent of cover provided by this insurance. If not, you may not get the cover you require.

We only provide cover up to the amount(s) and limits and sum(s) insured specified in your Policy and subject to its other terms, conditions and exclusions. All amounts insured exclude GST.

An excess may apply when you make a claim. An excess is the part of a claim you must bear and is payable for each occurrence covered by this insurance. An occurrence is one or a series of occurrences arising out of one cause. When an excess applies we will reduce the amount we pay by the amount of the excess or we will ask you to pay it.

The type and amount of excess is shown in your Policy (usually in this document and the schedule). We agree on the amount of the excess(es) with you when you apply for this insurance and the excess may vary according to where you live and your insurance history.

For example, your home has suffered severe damage as a result of storm passing over your suburb. If your Policy or schedule mentions that you have a $100 excess, then our claim payment reimbursing you for the overall loss will be reduced by $100.

If you do not adequately insure yourself for your potential loss, you may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss yourself.

We only cover your interest in the insured property unless we specifically include cover for the interest of a third party.

We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim in certain circumstances. In particular:

- where an exclusion applies;
- if you do not comply with the terms and conditions of your Policy;
- if you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure or make a misrepresentation; or
- if you make a fraudulent claim.

We also may cancel your Policy in certain circumstances permitted by law e.g. if you fail to comply with a condition or breach your duty of disclosure.

Cost of the insurance

The insurance provided is subject to your payment or agreement to pay the premium we require by the agreed time. In order to calculate your premium, we take various factors into consideration, including:

- the type of cover requested;
- the construction of your Building and/or type of Contents;
- the sum(s) insured;
- the location of your Building and/or Contents;
- your previous insurance history.

Your premium also includes amounts that take into account our actual or estimated obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example Stamp Duty, GST and any Fire Services Levy where applicable) in relation to your Policy. We will tell you when you apply what premium is payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid.

The amount may vary according to a number of factors such as where you live and your insurance history.

When you apply for this insurance, you will be advised of the total amount payable. If you choose to effect cover, the amounts due will be clearly set out in your schedule.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into your Policy with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose to us every matter that you know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into your Policy with us, to that which applies when you renew, vary, extend or replace it.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into your Policy with us for the first time

We will ask you various questions when you first apply for your Policy that are relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. When you answer those questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers;
- tell us everything you know; and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace your Policy

When you renew, extend, vary or reinstate your Policy, your duty is to disclose to us before the renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement, every matter that you know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

What you do not need to tell us

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Who does the Duty of Disclosure apply to?

The duty of disclosure applies to you and everyone that is an insured under the contract of insurance.

What happens if you or they do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure?

If you, or they, fail to comply with the duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under your Policy in respect of a claim or cancel it. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may be able to treat your Policy as if it was never effected.

Cooling off rights

Even after you make a decision to purchase this insurance, you still have cooling off rights. You can return your insurance by notifying us in writing within 21 days of cover commencing and we will refund the Premium paid unless something has occurred for which a claim may be payable. Even after this cooling off period ends you still have cancellation rights (See SECTION 3 GENERAL CONDITIONS).

Confirming Transactions

You may contact us in writing or by phone to confirm any transaction under your insurance if you or your adviser do not already have the required Policy confirmation details.

Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice, which is a self regulatory code for use by all insurers. We are a signatory to the Code of Practice. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry.

If you require further details please contact your nearest Lumley Insurance office or visit our website at www.lumley.com.au.

How to make a claim

SECTION 3 GENERAL CONDITIONS tells you what you need to do. Before we pay any claim, we require evidence as to the extent of loss or damage. Please ensure that, where possible, you keep any photographs or other documentation in respect of loss or damage to make the process as easy as possible.

Any claim settlements, up to the total of all amounts insured, will exclude GST. However, if there is a shortfall between the GST component of your claim and the amount of input tax credit you are entitled to, we will pay this shortfall in addition to the claim settlement.

Complaints - Internal and External Complaints Procedure

If you have a complaint, please write to us and explain what your complaint is and the reasons behind it.

We will then either resolve or attempt to resolve your complaint immediately or refer the matter to our Internal Dispute Resolution Committee (IDRC) if it is unresolved.

If you are not satisfied with the decision of the IDRC, you may be able to access the services of an independent external dispute resolution body called Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS).

If you require further information about our dispute resolution process, please contact us.

Privacy

We are bound by the National Privacy Principles of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) when we collect and handle your personal information.

We collect personal information for the purpose of providing insurance, including arranging insurance, Policy administration and claims handling. We also collect your personal information to conduct market or customer satisfaction research and to develop and identify products and services that may interest you. If necessary, we may collect your health and other sensitive information, but we will obtain your consent before doing so unless the collection is required or permitted by or under law.

We disclose personal information to persons we deal with in providing our services to you, for example, reinsurers, insurance intermediaries, insurance reference bureaus, credit reference agencies, our and your advisers and those involved in the claims handling process, for the purposes of assisting us and them in providing relevant services and products, and for the purposes of litigation. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by us to them to the specific purpose for which we supplied it. By providing your personal information to us, you consent to us making these disclosures.

Without this information, we may not be able to provide you with the services you require.

When you give us personal information about other individuals, we rely on you to have made or make them aware that you will or may provide their information to us and the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties will use it for, and how they can access it. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

If you would like a copy of our Privacy Policy, would like to seek access to or correct your personal information, or opt out of receiving materials we send, please contact us.

Updating our Product Disclosure Statement

We may need to update this PDS from time to time if certain changes occur where required and permitted by law. We will issue you with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Where the information is not something that would be materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person considering whether to buy this insurance, we may issue with notice of this information in other forms or keep an internal record of such changes (you can get a paper copy free of charge by calling us).

Compensation Arrangements

The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) requires licensees to have arrangements for compensating retail clients for losses they suffer as a result of a breach by the licensee or its representatives of Chapter 7 of this Act, unless an exemption applies. We are exempt from this requirement because we are an insurer supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority and subject to the prudential requirements of the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth).

PAYING CLAIMSExcesses that apply when you make a claim

An 'excess' is your contribution towards the cost of a claim. We will tell you if you need to pay an excess when you make a claim.

In most instances you can select, at the time of your enquiry or application for insurance, the amount of the excess you wish to pay should you make a claim. When you select a higher excess amount we will normally reduce the amount of the premium you will have to pay.

We take into consideration a number of factors in setting the amount of the excess. These include factors relating to the type of property being insured, where the property is located, the type of construction and your previous insurance and claims history.

At the time of your enquiry or application for insurance, the amount of the excess will be advised to you.

For each claim for your buildings and your contents, we will reduce the amount we pay you for your claim by the amount of the excess. The amount of your excess is shown in your schedule.

Your excess will be increased by $250 for any claim for loss or damage arising from an earthquake or tsunami. This loss or damage must occur within 72 hours of the earthquake.

When a claim is paid for loss or damage to your buildings and your contents, the excess amount will only be applied once. You will not be required to pay any excess in the event that your buildings or contents are a total loss.

When a claim is paid under 'Additional things we will pay for when you have insured your buildings' only, or 'Additional things we will pay for when you have insured your contents' only, your excess will not apply.

WHAT SECTION 1 AND SECTION 2 OF THE POLICY DO NOT COVER

We will not pay claims for loss, damage or liability arising from:

- war or warlike activity. War does not have to be declared. We do not provide cover for theft following this.
- hostilities, rebellion, insurrection or revolution. We do not provide cover for theft following these events.
- contamination by chemical and/or biological agents, which results from an act of terrorism. Terrorism is any act which may, or may not, involve the use of, or threat of, force or violence where the purpose of the act is to further a political, religious, ideological aim or to intimidate or influence a government (whether lawfully constituted or not) or any section of the public.
- lawful destruction or confiscation of your property.
- anything nuclear or radioactive.
- damage to a heating element. We will pay for any resultant damage following damage to a heating element.
- mildew, atmospheric or climatic conditions.
- mould or fungi.
- damage, loss or injury that you or anyone acting for you deliberately caused.
- flood, storm surge, the action of the sea, tidal wave, high water, or erosion.
- landslide or subsidence except as detailed on page 11.
- any event that does not occur within the period of insurance.
- failure or inability of any item, equipment or computer software to recognise correctly, to interpret correctly or to process correctly any date or to function correctly beyond any time when that item, equipment or computer software has not recognised, interpreted or processed correctly any date. We will pay for any resultant loss or damage that is covered by this Policy, however we will not cover resultant loss or damage to any frozen food, computer equipment or computer software.

Landlord's Exclusion

We will not pay for any loss or damage to:

- your building if it is occupied by a tenant under a rental agreement; or
- any of your contents that are situated in a tenanted building which you own or of which you are a part owner.

SECTION 3 GENERAL CONDITIONS

When your cover does not apply

Your cover for your buildings, contents and valuable items will not apply if, for a continuous period of 90 days or more, no one has occupied your buildings, unless the loss or damage results from lightning, thunderbolt or earthquake.

You can ask us to provide cover if your buildings are not going to be occupied for more than 90 days.

If we agree to provide cover, we will advise you in writing.

You cannot give your rights away

You cannot give anyone else an interest in this Policy without our written consent.

What you are required to do for us

- You must pay us the premium for this insurance.
- You must tell us as soon as possible of anything that changes the facts or circumstances relating to your insurance.
- You must take reasonable precautions to prevent anything which could result in a claim under this Policy.
- You must make sure that anyone doing anything on your behalf obeys all laws.
- You must comply with the conditions of this Policy.

Cancelling your Policy before the due date

You can cancel this Policy at any time. To do this you must tell us in writing. The Policy will end when we receive your notification.

We can cancel this Policy if you do any of the following:

- make a misleading statement to us when you apply for your insurance.
- fail to tell us anything you should tell us when you apply for this Policy, renew this Policy and when you change or reinstate this Policy.
- fail to comply with the conditions of this Policy.
- fail to pay the premium for this insurance.
- are not fair and open in your dealings with us.
- make a claim during the period of this Policy that is not true. The claim does not have to be under this Policy and can be with us or another insurance company.

We may cancel this Policy if you fail to notify us of a change in the circumstances of the risk during the period of insurance.

If we cancel this Policy, we will advise you in writing. To do this, a notice will be delivered or posted to you.

Return of premium if your Policy is cancelled before the due date

If your Policy is cancelled before the due date:

- we will keep the premium for the period that the Policy was in force.
- we will return to you the premium for the period from the date the Policy ended to the due date of the Policy.

How the Goods and Services Tax affects your claim

Where we make a payment under this Policy for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you are, or will be, or would have been entitled to under A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 in relation to that acquisition, whether or not that acquisition is actually made.

Where we make a payment under this Policy as compensation instead of payment for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you would have been entitled to under A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 had the payment been applied to acquire such goods, services or other supply.

The law that applies to this Policy

Any disputes arising from this Policy will be determined by the courts, and in accordance with the laws, of the state or territory of Australia where this Policy is issued.

How to make a claim

Please contact your nearest Lumley Insurance office when something happens that you believe you can claim for.

What you must do when you make a claim

You must make your claim as soon as possible after you suffer a loss. If you do not make it within 30 days, we may reduce what we pay you by an amount to take account of any disadvantage we suffer by the delay.

You must also:

- take all reasonable steps to stop any further loss from occurring.
- advise the nearest police station if your property is lost or stolen, vandalised or maliciously damaged. We may ask you to give us a written report from the police.
- keep the property that has been damaged so we can inspect it.
- tell us about any prosecution or inquest that may be held.
- send us any document relating to your claim within 72 hours of you receiving the document.

What you must not do when you make a claim

You must not do any of the following:

- repair or replace any damaged property without our consent.
- pay, promise to pay, or offer payment, or admit responsibility for a claim.

You give us your rights to claim from anyone else

If you have a right to claim against someone else for a claim you made under this Policy, you give us your rights to make that claim. You also give us your rights to conduct, defend or settle any legal action and to act in your name.

You must not do anything which prevents us from doing this and you must give us all the information and cooperation that we require.
