The amount of any claim may be reduced

The amount of any claim made against the Policy may be reduced:

- if you do not comply with any Policy condition.
- where an excess applies 'Excess' means the first amount which you must contribute to any claim you make under this Policy. Depending on the age or experience of the driver and whether a rigid body tipper or tipping trailer is insured under this Policy, you may have to contribute more than one excess.

Where an excess applies, the type and the amount will be shown in your Policy and/or Policy Schedule. If we accept your claim, we will deduct the excess shown in your current Policy and/or the Policy Schedule from any amount we pay under your claim.

- Standard Excess is the first amount you will have to contribute to every claim.
- Age or Inexperienced Driver Excess is in addition to the standard excess and applies where a vehicle is driven by a person:
 - under the age of 21, or
 - is aged 21 but under the age of 25, or

- aged 25 or more but who has not held an Australian driver's licence for 2 or more years for the type of vehicle being driven at the time of the incident.

This excess does not apply if the only damage to your vehicle is a broken windscreen, or window glass, or caused by storm or hail damage.

- Tipping Excess is in addition to the standard excess and any age or inexperienced excess that may apply.
- Rigid vehicle excess for rigid vehicles with a gross vehicle mass in excess of 12,000 kilograms.
- Learner driver excess may be applicable for vehicle with a gross vehicle mass less than 3,500 kilograms.
- Outside radius excess may be applicable for vehicles with a gross vehicle mass more than 3,500 kilograms.

There are some circumstances where an excess will not apply. Please refer to the section headed 'What you must pay if you make a claim - Excess' in Part B of this booklet.

Significant risks

This product may not match your expectations

This product may not match your expectations (for example, because an exclusion applies). You should read the PDS (Part A of this document) and the Policy Terms and Conditions (Part B of this document) carefully. Please ask your Financial Services Provider if you are unsure about any aspect of this product.

Your sum insured may not be adequate

It is important that your vehicle and all accessories are insured for their current market values, as our liability is limited to the sum insured you declare to us or the market values of your vehicle and all its accessories, whichever is the lesser.

Overdue premium

You must pay your premium on time otherwise your Policy may not operate.

If you pay an annual premium and you have not paid by the due date or your payment is dishonoured, or, if you pay your premium by instalments and your first instalment payment is dishonoured, this Policy will not operate and there will be no cover.

If you pay your premium by instalments and any instalment remains unpaid for:

- 14 days or more we may refuse to pay any claim
- 1 month or more we may cancel this Policy.

For more detailed information regarding payment options refer to the section headed 'How you can pay your premium' in Part B (Terms and Conditions).

A claim may be refused

We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim if you do not comply with the Policy conditions, if you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure, or if you make a fraudulent claim.

The cost of this insurance Policy

The total premium is the amount we charge you for this insurance Policy. It includes the amount which we have calculated will cover the risk, and any taxes and government charges. The premium and any taxes and government charges will be shown on your Policy Schedule.

When calculating your premium we take a range of rating factors into account. These factors, and the degree to which they affect your premium, will depend upon the information you provide to us.

The following factors have a significant impact on the calculation of your premium:

- type of cover selected
- the make, model and type of the insured vehicle
- the places where the vehicles are garaged
- previous insurance and claims history of the insured person and any drivers you have told us about
- radius of operation from the home base of your vehicle.

Premium payments can be made annually or by instalments. You should arrange your method of payment through your Financial Services Provider. A quote for premium may be obtained from your Financial Services Provider.

Duty of Disclosure – What you must tell us

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (the Act), you have a Duty of Disclosure. The Act requires that before a policy is entered into, you must give us certain information we need to decide whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms. Your Duty of Disclosure is different, depending on whether this is a new Policy or not.

New business

Where you are entering into this Policy for the first time (that is, it is new business and is not being renewed, varied, extended or reinstated) you must tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us, in answer to the specific questions we ask.

When answering our questions you must be honest.

- Who needs to tell us

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Policy.

- If you do not tell us

If you do not answer our questions in this way, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the Policy. If you answer our questions fraudulently, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as never having started.

Renewals, variations, extensions and reinstatements

Once your Policy is entered into and is no longer new business then your duty to us changes. You are required before you renew, vary, extend or reinstate your Policy, to tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is a matter that is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and anyone else to be insured under the Policy, and if so, on what terms.

- You do not have to tell us about any matter
 - that diminishes the risk
 - that is of common knowledge
 - that we know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, or
 - which we indicate we do not want to know.
- If you do not tell us

If you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel your Policy. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent we may treat this Policy as never having worked.

Taxation implications

Goods and Services Tax

The Policy has provisions relating to GST. In summary, they are as follows but please read the provisions in full. They can be found in Part B Terms and Conditions, under the heading 'How Goods and Services Tax affects any payments we make'.

- The amount of premium payable by you for this Policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium.
- When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the maximum amount we pay.

Other Taxation Implications

There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend that you seek professional advice.

Cancelling your Policy

How you may cancel this Policy

- You may cancel this Policy at any time by telling us in writing that you want to cancel it. You can do this by giving the notice to your Financial Services Provider.
- Where 'you' involves more than one party, we will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all parties named as the insured.

How we may cancel this Policy

- We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law by informing you in writing.
- We will give you this notice in person or send it to your address last known to us.

The premium

We will refund to you the proportion of the premium for the remaining period of insurance.

Cooling-off information

If you want to return your insurance after your decision to buy it, you may cancel it and receive a full refund. To do this you may notify your Financial Services Provider electronically or in writing within 21 days from the date the Policy commenced.

This cooling off right does not apply if you have made or are entitled to make a claim. Even after the cooling off period ends, you still have cancellation rights however your Financial Services Provider may deduct certain amounts from any refund for administration costs or any non-refundable taxes.

Financial Claims Scheme

This policy is a protected policy under the Financial Claims Scheme (FCS), which protects certain insureds and claimants in the event of an insurer becoming insolvent. In the unlikely event of QBE becoming insolvent you may be entitled to access the FCS, provided you meet the eligibility criteria.

PART B: POLICY TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR MOTOR VEHICLE POLICY – FLEET AND HEAVY HAULAGE VEHICLES

Insurer

The Policy is underwritten by QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited, ABN 78 003 191 035, AFS Licence No. 239545 of 82 Pitt Street, Sydney.

Our agreement with you

This Policy is a legal contract between you and us. You pay us the premium, and we provide you with the cover you have chosen as set out in the Policy, during the period of insurance shown on your Policy Schedule or any renewal period.

The excesses set out in the section headed 'What you must pay if you make a claim – Excess' apply to all claims except where otherwise stated. The amount of any other excess that applies to your Policy will be shown on your Policy Schedule.

The exclusions in the section(s) headed 'When you are not covered' and conditions in the section headed 'General Conditions' apply to all types of cover.

Your Policy

Your Motor Vehicle Policy – Fleet and Heavy Haulage consists of Part B (Terms and Conditions) of this booklet and the Policy Schedule we give you.

Please read your Policy carefully, and satisfy yourself that it provides the cover you require.

If you want more information about any part of your Policy, please ask us, or your Financial Services Provider.

The address and telephone number of your QBE branch are on your Policy Schedule.

You should keep your Policy Booklet and Policy Schedule together in a safe and convenient place for future reference.

Cover comes to an end following total loss

If we declare your vehicle a total loss and pay you the sum insured, market value or replace your vehicle, then the Policy will come to an end and you will no longer have any cover. This means you will not be entitled to make any further claim under this Policy and:

- where the premium has been paid in full for the period of insurance there will be no refund of any premium, or
- where the premium is paid by instalments, we are entitled to deduct from any claim paid or payable, the balance of the unpaid premium or instalments of premium.

Where this Policy covers more than one vehicle then this clause will only apply to the particular vehicle, which has been treated as a total loss.

Where we replace your vehicle with a new vehicle, as set out in 'Additional benefits – New vehicle replacement' and you choose to insure it with us and we accept the risk, a pro rata premium is payable.

Providing proof

So that your claim can be assessed quickly you should keep the following:

- receipts or other confirmation of the purchase of your vehicle and any accessories, and
- all service and repair records.

We may ask you for these if you make a claim.

Other party's interests

You must tell us of the interests of all parties (e.g. financiers, owners, lessors) who will be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have told us about them and we have noted them on your Policy Schedule.

How you can pay your premium

You can pay your premium:

- in one annual payment by cash, cheque, credit card or EFTPOS, or
- in monthly instalments by direct debit from your credit card or from your account with your financial institution.

Paying your annual premium

You must pay your annual premium by the due date. If we do not receive your premium by this date or your payment is dishonoured this Policy will not operate and there will be no cover.

Paying your instalment premium

If you are paying your premium for the first time by instalments we will deduct instalments each month on the day of the month that you nominate as your payment date.

If you are renewing your Policy and you paid your previous Policy by instalments, we will continue to deduct instalments for your renewed Policy on the day of the month you previously nominated as your payment date, unless you tell us otherwise.

If you have nominated the 29th, 30th or 31st of the month as your payment date, we will deduct your instalment payment on the next day if those dates don't occur in a month.

Details of your instalments are shown on your Policy Schedule.

If your first instalment of premium when you take out your Policy or renew it is dishonoured, this Policy will not operate and there will be no cover.

We will not pay a claim under this Policy if, at the time the claim occurred, any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for 14 days or more.

If any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for 1 month, we may cancel this Policy. We will send you a notice giving you details of the action we intend to take and when any cancellation will become effective.

We are entitled to deduct from any amount we pay you under a claim any unpaid premium or instalment of premium.

If you are paying your premium in instalments by direct debit from your credit card or financial institution account, you must tell us if those details change. You must do this no later than 7 days before your next instalment is due.

Preventing our right of recovery

If you have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate you for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy, we will not cover you under this Policy for that loss, damage or liability.

How Goods and Services Tax affects any payments we make

The amount of premium payable by you for this policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay.

When you are:

- (a) not registered for GST, the amount we pay is the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover including GST.
- (b) registered for GST, we will pay the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance and where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a Damaged item insured under the Policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled if you made a relevant acquisition. In these circumstances, the Input Tax Credit may be claimable through your Business Activity Statement (BAS).

You must advise us of your correct Australian Business Number and Taxable Percentage.

Any GST liability arising from your incorrect advice is payable by you.

Where the settlement of your claim is less than the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover, we will only pay an amount for GST (less your entitlement for Input Tax Credit) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST relating to our settlement of the claim.

We will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of yours which is relevant to your claim.

GST, Input Tax Credit (ITC), Business Activity Statement (BAS) and Acquisition have the same meaning as given to those expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and related legislation as amended from time to time.

Taxable Percentage is your entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on your premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium.

Where more than one vehicle covered under this Policy is involved in an incident giving rise to a claim, you will have to pay the applicable excesses in respect of each vehicle insured.

Standard excess

You will have to contribute the first amount of every claim. This amount is shown on the Policy Schedule as the standard excess.

Age or inexperienced driver excess

This excess is only applicable to vehicles with a gross vehicle mass less than 12,000 kilograms.

- (b) is aged 21 but under the age of 25, or
- (c) is aged 25 or more but has not held an Australian driver's licence for two or more years for the type of vehicle being driven at the time of the incident.

Age or inexperienced driver excess for Heavy Vehicles

Age or inexperienced driver excess for Heavy Vehicles (vehicles with a gross vehicle mass or gross combination mass of 12,000 kilograms or greater).

Where a rigid body motor vehicle with a gross vehicle mass or gross combination mass of 12,000 kilograms or greater is, at the time of an incident, being driven by or is in the charge of a person under 21 years of age, or the person driving or in charge of the vehicle has less than 2 years driving experience in Australia for these vehicles at the time of the incident an excess of $20,000 per vehicle will apply.

Tipping excess

If any rigid body tipper or tipping trailer covered under this Policy is involved in an event giving rise to a claim while the tipping hoist is partially or fully extended, the Standard excess as stated on the Policy Schedule in addition to any other excesses that may be applicable will be increased by 100%.

If your vehicle is outside a radius of 250 kilometres or the radius detailed on your Policy Schedule from your home, base(s) or depot(s) at the time of an accident then the total excesses payable will be 100% of your standard excess and an additional premium will be payable (determined by us) for the change in business operations.

Learner driver excess (applicable to vehicles with a gross vehicle mass less than 3,500 kilograms)

If at the time of a loss or damage, a licensed learner driver is in control of the vehicle the excesses that will apply are those that would have applied to the licensed passenger who is instructing the learner.

Rigid vehicles excess

If at the time of a loss or damage your rigid vehicle with a gross vehicle mass in excess of 12,000 kilograms was under the control of a person who was 21 years or over but under 25 years of age the total excess payable will be increased by 200%.

When you will NOT have to pay an excess

This section is applicable only to vehicles that are sedans, station wagons, 4x4 or goods carrying vehicles with a gross vehicle mass under 3,500 kilograms covered by Comprehensive cover only.

You will NOT have to contribute any excess towards a claim if:

- (a) you can satisfy us that the claim involves a collision with another vehicle and the collision which gave rise to the claim was totally the fault of the driver of another vehicle, and
- (b) you tell us the registration number of the other vehicle and the full name, licence number and address of the other driver, and
- (c) the amount of your claim exceeds the applicable excesses under the Policy.

We give this benefit only if we are allowed legally to recover the amount of any loss including any applicable excesses from the third party.

Where the driver of the other vehicle disputes who was at fault, you must pay any excess which applies but we will refund it if we are successful in establishing that the other driver was at fault.

Special clauses

Only those Clauses that are shown on the Policy Schedule will apply.

Burning cost

The burning cost premium has the following 4 elements:

- (a) maximum premium payable
- (b) deposit premium payable
- (c) minimum premium payable
- (d) claims incurred adjustment factor

Where this clause is shown on the Policy Schedule it is agreed you will pay a deposit premium and the final annual maximum premium payable will be adjusted after 90 days from the expiry date of the contract in accordance with the following formula: All amounts both paid and outstanding by us in respect of claims occurring during the period of insurance, multiplied by the claims adjustment factor shown on the Policy Schedule. The premium payable will be calculated in accordance with this formula and after taking into account the deposit premium paid, any premium due will be paid by you or any premium refund will be paid to you subject to a minimum premium and a maximum premium as agreed.

Where any losses have occurred in the period of insurance and are reported to us after the adjustment premium has been calculated you will be required to pay any additional premium (subject to the maximum not having been reached) based on the adjustment factor for the period of insurance in which the loss occurred.

'Additional benefit - Automatic additions and deletions' will be factored into adjustment of the final adjusted annual premium.

We will retain the right to call up the difference between the deposit premium and the maximum premium at any time during the period of insurance if incurred claims exceed 80% of the deposit premium.

Claims experience discount

Where this clause is shown on the Policy Schedule it is agreed that should you renew this Policy for a further 12 months we will refund after 90 days of the renewal date, an amount as calculated by the following formula for the previous year, should a refund result:

The percentage shown on the Policy Schedule as (a) of the final premium paid less incurred claims less the percentage shown on the Policy Schedule as (b) of such surplus, if any, to a maximum percentage of the premium shown on the Policy Schedule as (c).

Final premium paid means premium paid for the period of insurance after adjustment due to changes in fleet size or to total asset value.

Incurred claims means losses paid during the period of insurance plus reserves for outstanding losses.

The refund is subject to all losses occurring during the period of insurance having been notified by you to us.

Where the claims experience has been allowed at the commencement of the contract the same formula will be applied using the premium amount as if there had been no upfront discount allowed and the insured will have to pay the difference between the actual premium due and the amount paid as the original deposit.

Dangerous goods

Where this clause is shown on the Policy Schedule it is agreed that provided that the transportation of dangerous goods is limited to classes 2, 3, 4, 5, 8 and 9 as listed under The Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods by Road and Rail, the maximum amount we will pay for Property Damage under Section 2 of this Policy is amended to the amount shown on the Policy Schedule for Dangerous Goods in respect only to your vehicles whose registration numbers are shown on the Policy Schedule.

It is agreed that we will not be liable to make any payment under this Policy until the paid losses exceed the aggregate deductible during any one period of insurance.

It is agreed that you will advise all insurable losses to us and we will manage all claims on your behalf until the aggregate deductible is reached and standard excesses will apply only thereafter. It is agreed that your contribution to the aggregate deductible is calculated by adding the total of all claim settlements by us on your behalf and paid by you during any one period of insurance.
