HOW TO NOTIFY US IF A CYBER EVENT HAPPENS

1. If a cyber event happens you must immediately ring the Emergence cyber event reporting line on 1300 799 562 or notify Emergence in writing at emergence@ci-au.com.
2. We will assess whether it is a cyber event under the policy.
3. If it is a cyber event covered under this policy we will implement a technical management response for cyber event response costs and a claims management response for legal expenses and impact on business costs.
4. If it is not a cyber event under the policy we will advise you to engage your own service resources.

HOW THIS POLICY WORKS

Your policy is made up of several sections.

It is important to understand the type of cover you have purchased and how the limits apply. Not every financial loss caused by a cyber event is covered under the policy. The type of losses covered are set out in Sections A, B and C.

Section A – Losses To Your Business responds to a cyber event in your business and covers reasonable costs to bring your business back to the condition it was immediately before the cyber event. These costs are called impact on business costs.

Section B – Legal Expenses if there is a cyber event in your business and you require legal advice from an Australian Legal Practitioner.

Section C – Cyber Event Response costs sets out the cyber event response costs that we pay in responding to a cyber event.

Section D – What Certain Words Mean explains the meaning of defined words used in the policy. These words may be used in one or more sections of the policy. The meaning of the words "cyber event" is also explained.

Section E – Exclusions sets out what the policy does not cover. These are the policy's exclusions.

Note: This policy does not cover notification costs. Property damage is not covered, nor is breakdown of your equipment or IT infrastructure. It does not cover you for legal liability at common law or under statute to pay damages, compensation, penalties or fines. This policy is not a substitute for fidelity or comprehensive crime insurance. You should speak to your insurance broker about what this policy covers and what other insurance covers you need.

Section F – Claims Conditions explains what you must do if there is a cyber event.

Section G – General Conditions which you have to comply with under this policy.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary, continue under similar insurance or reinstate an insurance policy.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your policy or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as if it never existed.

YOUR 'COOLING OFF' RIGHTS

You can return your policy to us within 14 days of its commencement or renewal, which is stated on your schedule. If we receive your written request to cancel this policy within the 14 day period, we will cancel the policy effective from the commencement and give you a full refund. You cannot use this right where, before the 14 day period ends, you have exercised any of your rights or powers under the policy (e.g. you have made a claim).

After the cooling off period ends you still have cancellation rights under the policy (see our General Conditions).
